

Mr. Powell:

The right to free speech requires the right to hear that free speech. Do not establish rules by which we the public will have access to only a very limited number of media who will control what are able to hear.